

PROCLAMATION

A PROCLAMATION DESIGNATING
JULY 1-31, 2024

AS “MEDIATOR APPRECIATION MONTH”
IN LONGMONT, COLORADO

WHEREAS, Longmont Mediation Services, a volunteer-based community mediation program, is dedicated to transformative belief that community members themselves can learn to resolve their own conflicts and by doing so foster peace and justice, benefiting the city as a whole; and

WHEREAS, the mediator is a neutral person who assists the parties in discussing the situation and reaching a solution that will be effective and practical for everyone involved; and

WHEREAS, all mediators, especially our dedicated volunteers, play a crucial role in the success and sustainability of the City of Longmont’s Mediation Services; and

WHEREAS, mediation is faster and less expensive than legal proceedings; and

WHEREAS, Susan Spaulding, Community Relations Specialist for the City of Longmont has been a dedicated and distinct mediator for over sixteen years, consistently demonstrating kindness, empathy, and commitment; and her dedication of resolving conflicts and fostering understanding has positively impacted the lives of countless individuals and families in our community.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Joan Peck, Mayor, by virtue of the authority vested in me and the City Council of the City of Longmont, do hereby proclaim the month of July 2024 as “Mediator Appreciation Month” in Longmont, Colorado and urge all residents to recognize the invaluable service of all mediators that service our community.
