SUBJECT/AGENDA TITLE:

A Resolution Of The Longmont City Council Approving The Intergovernmental Agreement Between The City And The Longmont Housing Authority For Support And Services

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY:

On May 26, 2020, the LHA and the City of Longmont entered into a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) that allowed the City to manage the operations of the Longmont Housing Authority for an interim period, while determining the long-term sustainable operational model for the LHA. That MOU anticipated both entities entering into subsequent Service Agreements to further define roles, responsibilities and tasks of each entity in pursuit of this common goal for the LHA. The first Intergovernmental Agreement (IGA) for Support and Services between the City and the LHA was executed November 12, 2020, and covered the period through December 31, 2021. Subsequent IGAs have covered the 2022 and 2023 fiscal years. The attached IGA outlines the support and services the City will provide to LHA through December 31, 2024. The key additions for 2024 include insurance brokerage services, modifications to the supportive services model carried out by the Resource Specialist and Clinicians positions, a new Assistant Director position, snow removal services, and updates to the development management services to reflect the latest status of each development project. The Longmont Housing Authority Board approved a resolution to enter into the IGA with the City on January 16, 2024.

COUNCIL OPTIONS:

1. Approve resolution and authorize the Mayor to sign the IGA.
2. Amend the IGA and authorize the Mayor to sign and amended IGA.
3. Disapprove and provide other direction to staff.

RECOMMENDED OPTIONS:

Approve resolution and authorize the Mayor to sign the IGA.
