

Attachment 2 - Fox Meadows Park Naming

- Criteria for Naming:

Natural Landmark

Natural Feature or Habitat in the vicinity of the park

Person or Family who:
- Displayed outstanding, long-term civic commitment

Contributed service to the community above and beyond the normal

Made noteworthy contribution to the development of Longmont parks and recreation

Has been prominent in the history of the development of Longmont or Boulder County

Is worthy of public commemoration

Has performed acts of national significance

Homesteaded or was the owner of the park property

Has contributed significant funds for the park or local parks and recreation efforts

SUGGESTED NAME	REASON	NAME	PHONE #	EMAIL
Fox Meadow Park
Fox Park	Neighborhood name	Elleen Zecca	(303)250-6247
Fox Meadows Park	Neighborhood	Rosemary Samuelson	(303)335-3646
Fox Meadow Park	The surrounding neighborhoods all belong to fox meadow HOA	Robert Pilkey	(720)982-7624
Bob Askey	Great former mayor in my opinion	Jerry Weitzel	(970)779-5111
Fox Meadow Park	Great name after all the surrounding neighborhoods
Arapaho Park	Indigenous tribe in this area and deserving of that recognition	Paula Fitzgerald
Calkins Crest	Named after the original name of neighboring union resevoir, and that its above elevation of the body of water, overlooking the gorgeous waterscape!	Holly Ensby
Calkins Green	Calkins Lake	Alex Ensby
Clela Rorex Park	Clela was first county clerk to issue LGBTQ marriage license. She lived in Longmont until her death in 2022	Nate George
Eagle Sky Park	I've seen many eagles in this field .	Valeri Vejrostek
Earth Meadows Park	This name pays homage to the neighborhood of Fox Meadows - "Earth," means a group of foxes together signifying the park is meant for all.	Kathryn McGrath
Fox Den Park	Because it is by fox meadows keep the same feel as the neighborhood's name	Josiah Lopez
Fox Field Park	Foxes live in the field	Kathy Ayres
Fox Hollow Park	Because we are fox meadow and in this case hollow is meaning hideout or play set	Braylon Rothe
Fox Meadows Park		Aaron Michael
Fox Meadows Park	It appeals to my common sense and it is unlikely to offend (unless you're anti-fox).	Scott Yoho
Fox Meadows Park	It has a playful natural feel to it and connects to the nearby neighborhood.	Paige Lewis
Fox Meadows Park	Just keeping it simple will help people find it. If you name it something not related to the location it will be hard for residents outside of the area to remember the name to google it in and find it.	Mindy Mullen
Fox Meadows Park	Reinforces the existing identity of the neighborhood.	Wayne Smith
Fox Tail Run	What foxes do in the meadow	Joanna Huhman

Future Park	I have lived on Deerwood in front of this park for over 17 years, and that has been the name everyone in the community refers to it by. It's a fun, inside joke for the community and makes me laugh.	Garrett Walz
Future Park	It's had a sign saying Future Park the last 15 years. Might as well keep it.	Jenna Reed
Future Park		Kathy Crowder
Future Park	That is what is has been known as for all the Fox Meadow HOA residents since the begining of the development.	David McCarty
Future School Site Park	We used to walk by the sign in that area that said “Future School Site” and that would just be a funny name.	Madeline Brandt
Golden Fields Park	Thought of it	Ezra Schlosser
Horst Hennig Park	He was a Longmont resident until recently. He purchased his home near McIntosh Lake in 1962. He was a german immigrant.	Lisa Hennig
Jerry Garcia Memorial Park	Jerry duh	Colin Hanrahan
Jim Wall Park	Former CIO of Longmont	Braden Ward
Jones Park	To honor Mrs. Jones from skyline highschool who touched the lives of many in this community.	Travis Clifford
Leona Stoecker Park	Former Leona Stoecker "bleeds" Longmont. During her term as mayor she had the foresight to see the need for fiber optics and was successful in getting the city ringed with the technology. It was here efforts that resulted in our current award winning NextLight high speed internet many years later. Although over 25 years removed from her mayoral position she is still Longmont's biggest cheer leader.	Bill Fitzgerald
Little Raven	It respects a tribal leader of the Arapahoe people who were indigenous to Longmont and their reverence for the beauty of the land.	Louis Beaupre
Matthew Bueno Memorial Disc Golf Park		Dennis Koss
Meadowview Park	It's a meadow with a view and it's going to be a park...simple and logt	Sofia Van Surksum
Noah Gray	My son who was a 26 week preemie inspires me everyday.	Stephen Gray
Osprey Landing	Osprey Landing is a fitting name for the park as it not only pays homage to the majestic osprey, a natural inhabitant of the area, but also evokes a sense of connection between the community and the surrounding environment. The name reflects the park's commitment to preserving local wildlife, providing a landing place for both residents and the ospreys that contribute to the unique charm of the Fox Meadows neighborhood in Longmont.	Jessica Velthuis
Planicie Verde	“Green plain” is what that means in Spanish.	Roberto Arrece Toro
Prairie Edge Park	It is at the edge, where the plains end	Bob Rosinsky
Present Park	The sign on the property has said future park for 10+ years	Harry Kuskin
Rider Farm Park	To commerate previous owners & keepers of the land.	Kathleen Gonderinger
Todd Trail	"Todd" means Fox. I also assume a nine acre park would feature a walking trail.	Todd Dubois

Violet's Meadow	After my sweet dog Violet that passed during COVID. March of 2020. She loved running in tall grass a thrn often flopped onto her back and would wriggle in the grass. One of my fondest memories ever.	Alicia Cannizzo
Vixen Vale	To go with the fox theme	Todd Dubois
Pat Lopez or Lopez Park	She contributed tremendously to our community. She started in early eighties & established youth programs in Longmont. Many youth have benefited from these programs. The Lopez family continues to contribute to Longmont, her son Louie Lopez is working with youth. It would be the first park named in honor of a Latino community member.	Carmen Ramirez	(303) 709-6372	ramicr@hotmail.com
Lopez Park	In honor of Patricia Lopez, community activist and leader.	Jennifer Diaz-Leon	(720) 277-2354	jennydiaz89@gmail.com
Eddie Eagan Park	Resident 1905 - 1916; professional champion boxer, olympic champion; only person to win gold medals in both winter and summer games	Woody Coddington		Summarized in 2009 letter to City Manager
Jim Wall Park (or Memorial Park)	He was a great person and city employee, who did a lot for our community, volunteer fire fighter, and for special needs kids, and is greatly missed by family and friends.	Linda Bowes	(303) 772-6257	bowesjl@comcast.net
Jim Wall Memorial Park	Jim did a lot for the city of Longmont while he was the leader of the IT dept. He also donated a lot of his time to the community especially special needs children.	Wendy Gaffield	(303) 772-2451	wgaffield@comcast.net
Jim Wall Park	Jim worked for the city for many years, was a volunteer firefighter in Hygiene, hosted kid friendly activities at his farm and loved pickleball. He was a wonderful member of our community.	Pamm Monier		pnmonier@gmail.com
Jim Wall Park	Jim was a beloved member of our early morning pickle ball group. He not only meets many of the criteria but also was always welcoming and friendly to many of us new comers, encouraging us senior citizens to participate in various exercise opportunities City of Longmont offers, showing us how fun it is. We really miss him.	Yukari Miyamae	(720) 494-8796	murasaki@indra.com
Jim Wall	City of Longmont employee	Greg Kopetzky	(720) 597-5724	greg.kopetzky@gmail.com
Jim Wall	He was an outstanding community member	Roni Kopetzky		rpetzky@gmail.com
Jim Wall Park	Jim has passed and was loved by all. He was a prominent member with the city of Longmont and a volunteer fire fighter. He and his wife Jeri were nominated as 7 day hero's for always opening up their ranch for disabled children. They have been doing this for many years. He and his wife also loved playing pickleball	Vivian Baker	(720) 282-5080	vbaker217@gmail.com
Jim Wall park	Jim was a leading contributor to the Longmont community. He was very well liked by all and a very funny man.	Mary Williams	(303) 818-9297	marymwilliams41@gmail.com

Dan Benavidez City Park	Dan Benavidez is a long-time Longmont activist, former city council member and deputy mayor. He was the first Latino in the history of the city to rise to this political level. His list of community leadership accomplishments and multicultural outreach is long and widely recognized. Recognize Longmont's Latino heritage with a park in his honor.	Sue Ahlberg	(303) 682-0739	ahlberg.sue@gmail.com
Christopher A. Anderson	/www.dailycamera.com/2009/08/14/longmont-soldier-killed-in-iraq-v	William Davis	(303) 359-1871	bp.davis.21@gmail.com
	He was Navy sailor from Longmont who died at the age of 24 in the volatile western Iraqi province of al-Anbar. The Longmont High School graduate was a corpsman assigned to the 2nd Marine Division. A Corpsman is a medic, so his job was to save lives and he died doing this.
Longmont Thomas Jefferson Park	Roosevelt Park is named after a noted American president. Let's honor founding father Thomas Jefferson by putting his name on another park. There will be no controversy over a Longmont park named after an outstanding American president.	Bob Askey	(303) 776-8383	bob.askey@comcast.net
Navarro Park	Ed Navarro was a well known and respected name in the longmont area. He helped so many people. I was one of the very last ones he helped. El comite, photography..It's just easier to include an article	Angel Ballard	(720) 210-6950	ballardangel028@gmail.com
	https://www.dailycamera.com/2018/01/05/ed-navarro-longmont-lawyer-photographer-latino-leader-remembered-for-selfless-spirit/
Jim Wall	Compassion, Friendly, Community Supporter, Pickleball Player	Janet Crawford		jkkccjanet@aol.com
Jim Wall Park	While I never met him, I've heard nothing but good things about his character and humanity.	jeff brand	(303) 651-2778	jkbrand@mesanetworks.net
Jim Wall Park	He was a wonderful person who always had a smile and extended a helping hand. He loved Pickleball. He loved Longmont.	katy diver	(303) 702-0428	katy@katydiver.com
Jim Wall Park	Jim was a strong community activist, worked for the city, volunteered with the Hygiene Fire Dept. was a pickle ball player and an all around good human being.	Deborah Crabbe	(505) 716-3213	crabbeorama@gmail.com
Jim Wall Park	Jim easily meets at least 6 out of the 8 criteria named above. Both at work and outside of work, he was a very kind, generous person who cared deeply about his job, the community and the success of both!	Lora Morgan		leftylora@gmail.com
" Sugar Beet Park " or " Caboose Park "	I was born and raised in Longmont..(1947)..my grandparents and Father all worked at the Sugar Factory.....It is such an important part of Longmont's history. The train has been a great way to Longmont.	Sharie Lee	(303) 776-9554	sharieandroger@yahoo.com
Jim Wall	His contribution to the Longmont community	Judy Watt		judy.watt@comcast.net
Jim Wall Park	Jim has been a contributor to the Longmont Parks and Recreation. He was a kind generous man.	Barb Gordon		barbaragordon24262@gmail.com

Louisiana Boardwalk	Back in 1803 Colorado was Louisiana. Just Google Louisiana 1803 map. I think this would be a way to Honor its original name . Louisiana longmont Park. It's HISTORY brought back to present day. This park will be sought after from tourists. It will make it a famous park.	Charla Barker	(970) 534-7476	charlabarker1@gmail.com
Jim Wall	A devoted city employee.	marlene redman	(303) 702-1972	purpleshadow875@aol.com
Jim Wall	He was a member of our community for a long time. Passed away last year, I believe. He worked for the city and was always warm and friendly to everyone. I used to see him at the Rec Center each morning. A wonderful guy! Made life better!	Anne Marie Polich	(303) 710-0207	polichannemarie@gmail.com
Jim Wall	Jim Wall was a dedicated city employee and a treasured member of the Longmont community. He was also a Vietnam Veteran and a Naval Academy graduate. He and his wife Jeri helped lots of underprivileged and special needs kids. Naming the park after Jim would be lasting honor to him and to Jeri.	Gretchen Dixon		gretchen.dixon@longmontcolorado.gov
Jim Wall Park	Jim passes away in 2018 and he was a great man who had done so much to/for this community. I think this would be a great way to honor him and all that he had done. "The Jim Wall Park"	Gena Whitcomb	(303) 774-4800	gena.whitcomb@longmontcolorado.gov
Jim Wall	Jim was a dedicated man who not only worked for the City of Longmont, doing great things he was highly active in the community. A park dedicated to him would be a great tribute to a great man.	Tanya Gumeson	(303) 717-5890	tanyagumeson@gmail.com
Jim Wall Memorial Park	Navy Veteran;the head of Longmont's IT department;a mentor for elementary students;volunteer firefighter;welcomed special needs students to experience his ranch;and always the first one to lend neighbors and friends a helping hand. It was an honor to have known Jim, and naming a park after him would be an incredible and fitting way to honor him.	Sally lackey	(303) 588-2025	lackey3@comcast.net
Doug Brown Park	Doug Brown was a city council member who worked tirelessly for the citizens of Longmont. He came to City Council with no experience just a big heart for Longmont. He was an avid walker and bicyclist. He enjoyed working on behalf of the citizens and is credited with supporting and advocating for the park system we now enjoy in Longmont.	Ryan Kragerud		rjkragerud@gmail.com
Jim Wall Memorial Park	Navy vet, Longmont IT department, Fire fighter, welcomed all special needs kids to his ranch. He always looked for the best in people and always had a smile on his face. He was loved by everyone who met him. He was such a huge contributor to the community, Longmont, and to his country.	Phil Lackey	(303) 746-5812	lackey3@comcast.net
Sugar Hill	As a historic icon and a deep part of Longmont's history, this park is within a stone's throw of the old sugar factory. Paying homage to this history, "Sugar Hill" would be a fun and whimsical destination for the community to enjoy their time together outdoors.	Brian Zapp	(720) 309-0437	bzapp@appliedfoods.com

Jim Wall Memorial Park	Jim contributed many hours as a City employee trying to keep the City moving towards a more Technology first approach to keeping up with all the technological changes in the world. He also gave of his time to help special needs children at his ranch where they could just have fun, interact with animals, and be around others like them.	Bob Waddell	(303) 651-8975	bob.waddell@lovelandcolorado.gov
Jim Wall Neighborhood Park	Jim worked for the City of Longmont for 13 years and passed away unexpectedly in March 2018. Jim committed his life to serving others. He and his wife were 7 EveryDay Heros recognized for their volunteer work with special needs kids. Jim volunteered with Hygiene Fire, was a mentor to various young kids, and always had a kind word to share.	Elizabeth Seacat	(720) 238-3535	elizabethseacat@gmail.com
Submissions not deemed to meet the naming criteria
Alma Marcela Gozo Park	Ana Marcela Gozo was a female hero in Mexico City because she helped that woman could have rights	Juan Padilla
Bandana Park	I collect bandanas, over 350	Asher French
Buckner Family Park	RH Kennard
Charlie's Park	After becoming disabled I was scared to leave the house. My service dog, Charlie, gave me the confidence to have a normal life again. She takes me on walks in all the city parks and we can't wait for another one to walk in.	Jay Davis
Embrace park	I came Longmont a couple years for another country ? And this community embrace me and my family and make us feel welcome	Krystal
Eutierria Park	Eutierria: “a good and positive feeling of oneness with the earth and its life forces.”	Lisa Lawson
Fitness Park	There should be fitness stations for runners and other active individuals!	Mikayla Roeber
One Tree Park		Larry Graham
Parky McPark Face	Whimsical	Matt burtis
Parky McParkFace	It's the best name.	Cameron High
Peak Meadows	Because it’s a good name	Colin Hanrahan
Sherba Oasis	Seems fitting	Tim Sherba
Skyy Park	Best Name!	Tim Sherba		