

AMENDMENT AB INITIO TO INTERGOVERNMENTAL AGREEMENT BETWEEN CITY OF LONGMONT AND THE BOULDER REGIONAL EMERGENCY
TELEPHONE SERVICE AUTHORITY RELATED TO PUBLIC SAFETY ANSWERING POINT FUNDING

This Amendment Ab Initio (“Amendment”) is made on the date set forth below, to that one certain Intergovernmental Agreement (“Agreement”) entered into on November 18, 2024 by and between the City of Longmont, a municipal corporation, and its division of Public Safety (“the City” or “LDPS”) and, and the Boulder Regional Emergency Telephone Service Authority (“BRETSA” or “Authority”), each a “Party” and collectively the “Parties,” to conform the Agreement to the terms of BRETSA Board Resolution 240103 [Conformed]; C.R.S. 29-11-104 Distribution for BRETSA PSAPs.

1. The second section numbered as Section 5 of the Agreement is renumbered as Section 6, and the section numbered as Section 6 of the Agreement and captioned “General Terms” is renumbered as Section 7.
2. The following sentence is added at the end of subsection a. of the renumbered Section 6 of the Agreement:

Block-funded amounts distributed to a PSAP Agency or CU pursuant to the C.R.S. § 29-11-104 Distribution which are not expended during the fiscal year in which they are distributed shall be returned to BRETSA.

3. Subsection e. of the renumbered Section 6 of the Agreement is revised to read as follows:

LDPS shall (i) provide BRETSA such information as may be necessary for BRETSA to respond to Colorado Public Utilities Commission or Federal Communications Commission inquiries, surveys or requests for data concerning the use of proceeds of the Emergency Telephone Charge established by BRETSA, the 9-1-1 Surcharge pursuant to C.R.S. 29-11-102.3, or the Prepaid Wireless 911 Charge” pursuant to 29-11-102.5, which are remitted to BRETSA, (ii) maintain and provide BRETSA an accounting (financial report) of the use of the funds and the purpose permitted pursuant to C.R.S. § 29-11-104(2)(a) and 47 C.F.R. § 9.23 or successor provisions and (iii) provide BRETSA supporting source documentation, such as actual payroll and benefit summary reports, of the FTE(s) funded through the BRETSA block funding, at such times as requested by the Financial Officer for accounting, budgeting, and reporting purposes and for compliance with the PUC collection of data for FCC or other statutory or regulatory reporting purposes.
