

PROCLAMATION

A PROCLAMATION DESIGNATING APRIL 2021, AS VOLUNTEER APPRECIATION MONTH IN LONGMONT, COLORADO

WHEREAS, the month of April has been designated nationally as Volunteer Appreciation Month to recognize the hard work, dedication and passion of volunteers and national service members throughout our nation; and

WHEREAS, last year, more than 65 million Americans gave their time in service to our nation, which is a testament to the compassion and generosity of the American spirit; and

WHEREAS, the City of Longmont commemorates Volunteer Appreciation Month by recognizing our more than 1,000 valued volunteers including advisory board members, parks volunteers, citizen patrol volunteers, mediators and museum volunteers and numerous others who volunteer countless hours for the benefit of the whole community; and

WHEREAS, the City of Longmont believes that government alone cannot meet all of our city's needs, so we partner with businesses, faith-based organizations, non-profit organizations, foundations and individuals who serve in city government and in our community to make a difference; and

WHEREAS, the City is committed to encouraging volunteerism and national service among its employees, citizens, partners, businesses and organizations and thanks all volunteers for their dedicated service; and

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Brian J. Bagley, Mayor of the City of Longmont, hereby proclaim the month of April 2021 as "Volunteer Appreciation Month" in the City of Longmont, Colorado and share profound gratitude to all of our City of Longmont volunteers for serving our residents and our community and urge everyone to seek ways to share their talents and give back to the community at-large.
