

PROCLAMATION

A PROCLAMATION DESIGNATING
JANUARY 16 - 22, 2022,

AS

“HONORING DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. WEEK”
IN LONGMONT, COLORADO

WHEREAS, January 17, 2022, marks the Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. holiday, on which we honor Dr. King’s unwavering fight for the absence of oppression and the presence of opportunity for all; who sacrificed to sow the seeds for a movement of peace, equality, and justice; and

WHEREAS, across the nation, in the State of Colorado and in the City of Longmont, honoring Dr. King has become a “Week of Service” within our communities. Events held throughout Boulder County are made possible by the commitment and dedication of many volunteers from diverse backgrounds. The combined efforts of these volunteers are a fulfillment of Dr. King’s dream and highlight the importance of the Civil Rights Movement and the need to take action; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Judy Huston has made a commitment to outstanding community service in sharing the importance of the Civil Rights Movement, Dr. King’s legacy, and keeping the dream alive for future generations throughout Boulder County,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Joan Peck, Mayor, by virtue of the authority vested in me and the City Council of the City of Longmont, do hereby proclaim the week of January 16 - 22, 2022, as “Honoring Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Week” in Longmont and invite all to attend this exciting program honoring Dr. King.

MAYOR:

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Joan Peck".

ATTEST
CITY CLERK:

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "David Quinn".