

PROCLAMATION

A PROCLAMATION DESIGNATING
SEPTEMBER 4-9, 2023

AS

“LONGMONT MUSEUM DISCOVERY DAYS WEEK”
IN LONGMONT, COLORADO

WHEREAS, the Longmont Museum’s Discovery Days is an early childhood education program that encourages children ages 2 to 6 and their parents or caregivers to engage together in educational, hands-on art, music and movement activities; and,

WHEREAS, when caregivers attend Discovery Days with their children, they help them cultivate important school-readiness skills, such as language development, attention, concentration, fine motor skills, emotional regulation, and play and social abilities; and,

WHEREAS, Discovery Days also helps grown-ups learn skills to support their little one’s development as they observe, interact, make social connections and consult with classroom teachers; and,

WHEREAS, the program is offered as a no-registration-needed class, five days a week, with three sessions per day; and,

WHEREAS, the Longmont Museum has added sessions on Saturdays to better serve families who are working during the week, an important effort toward equity; and,

WHEREAS, Early Childhood Care and Education is a primary Council priority, helping ensure that families with children under age five receive appropriate, affordable and high-quality care and education.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Joan Peck, Mayor, by virtue of the authority vested in me and the City Council of the City of Longmont, do hereby proclaim September 4-9, 2023 as “Longmont Museum Discovery Days Week” in Longmont, and invite all citizens in the community to explore this resource for early childhood education with the young people in their lives.

MAYOR:

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Joan Peck".

ATTEST
CITY CLERK:

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "David Quinn".