SUBJECT/AGENDA TITLE:

North I-25 Express Lanes (Segments 6, 7, and 8) Update from the Colorado Department of Transportation (CDOT)

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY:

CDOT is providing their end-of-year project status update for the North I-25 Express Lanes. This project is constructing a new Express Lane in each direction from the Little Thompson River bridge (just south of CO 56) in Berthoud to East Mulberry Street (CO 14) in Fort Collins.

BACKGROUND AND ISSUE ANALYSIS:

The project is constructing a new Express Lane in each direction from the Little Thompson River bridge (just south of CO 56) in Berthoud to East Mulberry Street (CO 14) in Fort Collins. The Express Lanes will allow drivers of vehicles carrying more than 3 people, including public transit, to travel for no charge (with an Express Toll transponder). Drivers traveling in vehicles with one or 2 total occupants will be charged a toll if they choose to use the new lane, with a lower charge for people using the Express Toll transponder. It appears from CDOT's schedule that this entire project will be substantially complete by 2024. This presentation was originally presented to the North I-25 Coalition on Dec. 1, 2021.
